Boca Raton's Robert Levitt, Chief Investment Officer of Levitt Capital Management, LLC, to Appear on CNBC August 17, 2007

BOCA RATON, FL. – Robert Levitt, Founder and Chief Investment Officer of Levitt Capital Management, LLC, will appear live from Paris on CNBC TV, August 17, 2007 at 11 a.m. EDT in the U.S.

Mr. Levitt has been traveling the world for the summer in search of investment opportunities for clients in as far away places as Botswana, Africa, where he met with mining executives.

According to Mr. Levitt, “We are very comfortable with our international investments for our wealthy clients around the world. We have recently made purchases for our portfolios in emerging market countries, as well as France, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Russia, Ukraine, Singapore, and Africa. We typically buy individual ordinary securities in global markets.

“Our primary interests or themes at this time are global agribusiness, metals and mining and energy. We have allocations in Europe based on the election of Sarkozy, as well as substantial holdings in China, Singapore, Japan and other markets.

Levitt Capital Management LLC, headquartered in Boca Raton, Florida, is an SEC registered investment advisor founded in 2000 by Robert Levitt. It manages $425 million for wealthy families throughout the world with a $3 million minimum of investable assets. It specializes in managing global portfolios for clients invested in global stocks purchased on foreign and domestic stock exchanges with the goal of absolute positive returns. The website for further information is www.lcmadvisors.com. The new European office address is 12/14 Rond-Point des Champs-Elysées, Paris, France 75008.
